

Sunday 9:00 am

04/06/2014

Westside Lanes Olympia, WA

Speed Results

	Total	+/- 200	Name	1.	2.	3.	4.	5.	6.
1	1579	379	Sharkey, Lonnie	279	269	249	234	269	279
2	1526	326	Myers, Tim	248	300	247	279	227	225
3	1492	292	Lorimor, Stan	300	259	279	239	179	236
4	1485	285	Robertson, Drew	268	226	290	267	216	218
5	1472	272	Lundgren, Walt SS+	216	248	258	269	224	257
6	1452	252	Ledbetter, Jerry SS	248	221	259	242	244	238
7	1449	249	Michaliszyn, Steve	254	248	205	259	236	247
8	1446	246	Zabelle, Trent	258	245	227	223	272	221
9	1445	245	Karch, Mike	216	229	245	239	267	249
10	1443	243	Martinson, Ron	236	234	244	258	233	238
11	1437	237	Miller, Hugh	280	269	204	218	248	218
12	1435	235	Force, Steve SS	246	258	211	250	223	247
13	1435	235	Kelly, Mike SS	217	246	248	211	268	245
14	1434	234	Schimming, Scott	223	268	237	216	248	242
15	1432	232	Anderson, Tom	220	279	265	237	223	208
16	1420	220	Porter, Bob	219	256	258	226	249	212
17	1395	195	More, Johnny SS	279	212	239	237	182	246
18	1393	193	Nogle, Mike	246	253	235	167	246	246
19	1389	189	Monahan, Jim	227	216	212	228	239	267
20	1378	178	Surina, Matt SS	243	268	184	225	246	212
21	1365	165	Polinsky, Mike	202	212	267	233	237	214
22	1362	162	DeRemer, Frank	289	226	224	194	205	224
23	1360	160	Dewitt, John SS	246	234	191	230	222	237
24	1328	128	Kiss, Steve SS	213	265	220	208	210	212
25	1327	127	Knapp, Jeff	256	237	237	194	217	186
26	1326	126	Day, Dennis	247	184	226	212	210	247
27	1323	123	Pierce, Tim	237	229	214	202	173	268
28	1318	118	Menning, Steve	239	199	236	228	192	224
29	1313	113	Webb, Dwayne	213	245	213	191	216	235
30	1308	108	Terpone, Dane	211	227	204	230	201	235
31	1302	102	Gustafson, Jon SS	184	218	247	268	195	190
32	1301	101	Sturdevant, Bob SS	234	212	176	196	224	259
33	1300	100	Lindberg, Larry SS	216	233	192	231	194	234
34	1293	93	Boesel, Steve SS	245	161	157	236	216	278
35	1278	78	Vernon, Mitch	239	224	225	173	236	181
36	1276	76	Rice, Roy SS+	211	245	204	183	222	211
37	1275	75	Soto, Steve	204	205	194	268	229	175
38	1275	75	Barone, Rafe	198	180	247	210	193	247
39	1255	55	Quinonez, Mark	186	179	248	198	235	209
40	1241	41	Lehew, Jim	258	192	236	195	184	176
41	1221	21	Pero, Dan	222	179	238	200	201	181
42	1218	18	Balou, Dale SS+	161	193	214	227	189	234
43	1212	12	Muzzy, Jeff	214	211	197	205	197	188
44	1204	4	Grenon, Larry SS+	173	267	198	193	192	181
45	1203	3	Smith, Bruce SS	170	168	219	217	247	182
46	1201	1	Dawson, Denney	222	210	193	194	157	225
47	1182	-18	Taylor, Dick SS+	189	237	161	182	171	242
48	1180	-20	Myers, Dale SS+	204	195	197	217	187	180
49	1177	-23	Ford, Steve SS	168	202	213	201	194	199
50	1176	-24	Johnson, Terry	184	181	257	190	176	188
51	1147	-53	Schlegel, Ernie SS+	192	215	195	205	200	140
52	1146	-54	Bjorke, Bob SS	200	181	178	223	159	205
53	1045	-155	Smith, Jim SS	237	133	168	178	159	170

NORTHWEST
SENIOR TOUR

OLYMPIA SENIOR OPEN

PRIZE	PLACE	BOWLER	TOTAL
$700	1	TIM MYERS	2632
$550	2	LONNIE SHARKEY	2601
$440	3	DREW ROBERTSON	2571
$390	4	TOM ANDERSON	2526
$340	5	HUGH MILLER	2506
$300	6	STEVE FORCE	2480
$280	7	SCOTT SCHIMMING	2429
$260	8	WALT LUNDGREN	2424
$240	9	MIKE KELLY	2422
$230	10	MIKE KARCH	2421
$220	11	RON MARTINSON	2381
$210	12	BOB PORTER	2373
$200	13	JERRY LEDBETTER	2365
$190	14	STAN LORIMOR	2347
$180	15	TRENT ZABELLE	2342
$170	16	STEVE MICHALISZYN	2222

WESTSIDE LANES
OLYMPIA, WA

TIM MYERS COLLECTS TENTH CAREER N.W.S.T. TITLE IN OLYMPIA

For the first time since 2004, the Northwest Senior Tour returned to Westside Lanes in Olympia, Washington, for the final singles event before May's season-ending Tour Championship. The Westside Open drew a strong field of 53 bowlers, who proceeded to post a record-setting scoring pace through the six games of qualifying.

Oregon's Stan Lorimor fired the first of the tournament's two perfect games in round one. The St. Helens right-hander followed with games of 259 and 279 for a sizzling 838 series to take the third-round lead. Washington's Lonnie Sharkey trailed in second place, charging out of the starting gate with games of 279 and 269 en route to a 797 total.

Milwaukie's Tim Myers posted the second 300 game of qualifying in round two, generating a third-place total of 795. Westside's own Drew Robertson used a score of 290 in game three to secure fourth place with 784 in total pins. Washington left-hander Tom Anderson rounded out the top five with pinfall of 764.

Five bowlers broke 1000 in total pinfall at the end of round four, led by Stan Lorimor's near-record 1077 series and per game average of 269. Lorimor's total was only 40 pins shy of the 4-game qualifying record, set by Jerry Ledbetter in November of 1998. Tim Myers posted a 279 game for an equally impressive 268 average, trailing Lorimor by only 3 pins.

Drew Robertson improved to third with a 1051 total- good for a 262 per game pace. Lonnie Sharkey and Tom Anderson remained in the top five, Sharkey with a 1031 total and Anderson with 1001 in total pins. Oregon right-hander Walt Lundgren topped all super senior/super senior-plus competitors, sitting in sixth place with a per game average of 247 on total pins of 991.

Round five ended with Tim Myers taking over the tournament lead with a 1301 total for a sizzling 260 per game average. Bremerton's Lonnie Sharkey fired a game of 269 to move up to second, trailing Myers by a single pin. Drew Robertson continued his hold on third place with a 1267 total and per game average of 253.

Leader Stan Lorimor struggled through a 179 game to fall to fourth place with 1256 in total pins. Portland's Trent Zabelle posted the round's high game of 272 to rocket from fourteenth to fifth with a 1225 total and 245 per game average.

N.W.S.T. titleholders rounded out the remaining spots in the top ten. Tom Anderson and Hugh Miller secured sixth and seventh place with total pinfall of 1224 and 1219. Walt Lundgren led all super senior-plus bowlers with 1215 in total pins. His 243 per game average placed the Oregon right-hander in eighth, one pin ahead of super senior Jerry Ledbetter. A game of 249 allowed Washington's Bob Porter to climb from thirteenth to tenth with total pinfall of 1208.

Despite shooting a game of 233, Beaverton's Ron Martinson dropped from seventh to eleventh place with a 1205 total. Washington right-handers controlled the remaining five qualifying positions. Steve Michaliszyn, Mike Karch, and Steve Schimming settled in twelfth through fourteenth on the leader board with totals of 1202, 1196, and 1192, respectively. Super seniors Mike Kelly and Steve Force held the last two spots to the match-play finals with total pinfall of 1190 and 1188. P.B.A. champion Matt Surina sat in seventeenth place, just 22 pins outside the cutline number.

The names in the top sixteen remained the same after the final round of qualifying. Lonnie Sharkey claimed the number one seed in dominating fashion, firing a 279 to open up a 53 pin lead over second-place Tim Myers. The 1579 total and 263 per game average posted by Sharkey was the highest 6-game qualifying score in nearly seven seasons of N.W.S.T. competition.

Stan Lorimor rebounded from his game-five slump to shoot 232 and claim the third seed with an 1492 total and a per game average of 248. Drew Robertson trailed in fourth with 1485 in total pins. Walt Lundgren led all bowlers in the 60+ crowd, firing a 257 to move into the top five with total pinfall of 1472- good for an impressive 245 per game pace.

Only 9 pins separated the next five places in the standings. Puyallup super senior Jerry Ledbetter averaged 242 to secure sixth place with a 1452 total, followed by Steve Michaliszyn and Trent Zabelle in seventh and eighth place with 1449 and 1446 in total pins. Mike Karch and Ron Martinson rounded out the top ten with 240 per game averages on pinfall of 1443 and 1437.

The six remaining berths to match play were earned by Washington bowlers. P.B.A. champion Hugh Miller locked up eleventh place with a 1437 total. Steve Force and Mike Kelly tied for twelfth with 1435 in total pins. Scott Schimming was another pin behind in fourteenth place, while Tom Anderson secured fifteenth at 1432 in total pins.

Bob Porter captured the last qualifying spot with a 236 average on total pinfall of 1420. The overall average of 243 per game set a N.W.S.T. record for a field of sixteen qualifiers, beating by a pin the previous record set back in 1998 at Washington's Shore Bowl.

Milwaukie's Johnny More finished with a 1395 total to earn the seventeenth-place check. Matt Surina cashed as the high super senior out-of-the-money. The Auburn right-hander averaged 229 per game to settle in twentieth place with a total of 1378. Olympia's Roy Rice averaged 212 with a 1276 total to cash as the high super senior-plus bowler outside the finals.

The tournament scoring pace remained red-hot throughout all four games of match play. Tim Myers took advantage of a 245-245 tie between leader Lonnie Sharkey and Bob Porter. The Oregon right-hander started with the first ten strikes en route to a 286-258 victory over Tom Anderson, regaining the top spot in the standings by a mere 2 pins over Sharkey. Olympia's Drew Robertson moved into third place with a 278-246 win over Seattle's Mike Kelly.

Reigning Player of the Year Mike Karch edged fellow all-star Trent Zabelle in another high-scoring match, 280-259. The win propelled Karch from ninth to fourth, but a distant 90 pins behind the leader. Stan Lorimor remained in the top five but fell two places, despite a 229-212 victory over Tacoma's Scott Schimming.

The round-two showdown between Tim Myers and Lonnie Sharkey was anti-climactic. Sharkey started the game with a string of eight strikes, while Myers could only keep pace through the first three frames. Sharkey's overwhelming 278-218 victory moved him into first place once again. Myers dropped back to third, trailing the leader by 89 pins.

The round-two drama unfolded in the duel between Drew Robertson and Mike Karch. Robertson jumped to an 11 pin lead through the first four frames, but Karch stormed back with a six-bagger to stake himself to an 18 pin lead through the eighth. With Karch failing to strike in the final two frames, Robertson calmly rolled two tenth-frame strikes for a closing three-bagger and a 237-234 victory.

Robertson moved into second place with the win, trailing Sharkey by 88 pins. Despite his loss, Karch held onto fourth place. Another down-to-the-wire shootout saw Mike Kelly rocket into the top five from his twelfth-place position, closing with strikes in frames 6-12 to nip Tom Anderson, 267-258.

Round three results winnowed the field to a three-man battle for the tournament title. With the chance to build an insurmountable lead, Bremerton's Lonnie Sharkey stumbled into two opens in his first four frames against fellow left-hander Drew Robertson. A three-bagger in frames 3-5 and a game-ending string of five strikes earned Robertson a 243-227 win.

Tim Myers rebounded from his second-round loss to overpower Mike Karch, 267-228, erasing most of his deficit to Sharkey in the process. The win moved Myers into second place, 19 pins behind the leader and 23 pins ahead of the third-place Robertson.

In other third-round contests, Tom Anderson and Hugh Miller waged a frame-by-frame slugfest that went down to the final shot of the match. Trailing by 9 pins after four frames, Anderson ended his game with eight strikes in a row. As a result, Miller needed to add the first two strikes in the tenth to his five-bagger already posted in frames 5-9.

Miller's first shot was flush, but a flat 7-pin on his next ball left Tom Anderson with the 260-258 victory. The win propelled Anderson from eighth to fourth in the standings. Miller moved into the top five despite his loss, a mere 3 pins ahead of Mike Karch.

Washington's Steve Force climbed to seventh to lead all super seniors, edging Mike Kelly, 212-202. Walt Lundgren was the top super senior-plus competitor, improving to eighth with a 247-202 victory over fellow Oregonian Stan Lorimor.

The final round of match play unfolded with Bonney Lake's Tom Anderson ending Drew Robertson's title chances, striking in five of his first six frames, then closing with a five-bagger to post a 258-238 victory. Robertson held onto third place despite the loss, while Anderson secured a fourth-place finish.

That meant the tournament spotlight focused solely on the championship match between Lonnie Sharkey and Tim Myers, a rematch of their round-two contest. Sharkey took a 2 pin lead through the first half of the match as Myers left three consecutive 10-pins in frames 4-6.

With both bowlers working on seventh-frame strikes, Sharkey's momentum was stymied by a solid 7-pin in his half of the eighth. Myers took full advantage, extending his string of strikes through the ninth frame, then shut out Sharkey with a tenth-frame punchout. With his 246-226 victory, Tim Myers captured the Westside Open by a 31 pin margin over Lonnie Sharkey. The tournament victory was Myers tenth career N.W.S.T. title.

Mercer Island's Hugh Miller retained fifth place, firing strikes in eight of his first nine frames to coast to a 256-204 win over Edgewood's Mike Karch. With the loss, Karch plummeted all the way to tenth. Steve Force finished as the top super senior with his 237-218 defeat of Walt Lundgren. The Bremerton right-hander improved to sixth place with the victory, while Lundgren remained in eighth.

Scott Schimming vaulted up the leader board to seventh place, posting a string of ten strikes in frames 3-12 to overpower Stan Lorimor, 280-214. With the loss, Lorimor settled for a fourteenth-place finish. Mike Kelly rallied late with a four-bagger in frames 7-10 to down Bob Porter, 213-185. Kelly improved to ninth with the win, while Porter's loss dropped the Vancouver right-hander to twelfth.

Ron Martinson outlasted fellow Oregonian Trent Zabelle, 203-172, moving up to eleventh place. The loss dropped Zabelle to fifteenth in the standings. In the tournament's final match, Jerry Ledbetter breezed past Steve Michaliszyn, 220-167. The win advanced Ledbetter to thirteenth place, while Michaliszyn remained in sixteenth with the loss.

The Northwest Senior Tour would like to thank proprietor Mike O'Malley, Jr. and his entire staff at Westside Lanes for their hard work and hospitality. Great thanks to Mike Snelbaker and Hammer Bowling for the continued generosity in their sponsorship of N.W.S.T. events.

The next tournament is the Bi-Mart 90+ Swiss Doubles, scheduled for the weekend of April 19-20, at Emerald Lanes in Eugene, Oregon. Defending champions are Washington seniors Jeff Knapp and Mike Kelly. A reminder to N.W.S.T. members- only two events remain before the season-ending Tour Championship. Bowlers must have competed in at least five tournaments on the 2013-2014 schedule, prior to the Tour Championship, to be eligible.